Widow McCarthy's Wind-Fall. Some few weeks since Dennis McCarthy, an employe of the Quartermaster's Department, employe of the Quartermaster's Department, died, and shortly afterward letters of administration on his estate were issued to Ann McCartny, his widow. Subsequently it was ascerained that Mr. McCartny had a box in the Safe Leposit Company, in which it was believed he kept valuable papers. Justice James has made an order directing Register of Wills Remisfell to open the box and take an inventory of the contents. The Register carried the order into effect, and what was discovered proved a great surprise. It was thought that Mr. McCarthy died poor and left almost nothing to his widow, but in the box was found $E.650, most of which was in United States bonds.
